PPRO overhauls board

State-owned property developer PT PP Properti Tbk (PPRO) has appointed M. Sinurlinda Gustina as president director, replacing Taufik Hidayat.

The decision was made at an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders on Oct. 8 as part of the company's reorganization of the board of commissioners and directors.

The meeting, which also approved amendments and adjustments to several articles of the company's association, assigned Deni Budiman as finance director, Rudi Harsono as first operation director, T. Arso Anggoro as second operation director and Fajar Saiful Bahri as business director of development and human capital management.

The changes to the commissioners and directors also resulted in the appointment of Agus Purbianto as PPRO's chief commissioner, accompanied by Aryanto Sutadi and Wahyu Indro Widodo as independent commissioners.

PPRO is a leading state-owned subsidiary of PT PP (Persero) Tbk.

Established in December 2013 and listed on the Indonesia Stock Exchange since May 2015, the company has developed about 49 projects, consisting of 33 residential projects, 10 commercial projects and 6 hospitality projects.
